

HENRY ZINGLERSEN

MindLab Global Solutions

Henry Zinglensen is the President, MindLab Global Solutions. Henry works with multinational corporations around the world to ensure the successful interaction and collaboration between international business counterparts.

Henry supports board members, executives and senior managers at multinationals within areas of:

- Facilitation and development of Board Effectiveness and Executive Team Effectiveness within multinational organizations;
- Integration of people, teams, and cultures for international Mergers, Acquisitions, and Joint-Ventures; and
- International Business Coaching for senior leaders engaged in increasingly international business activities.

Henry has had the opportunity to work with international leaders and multinational teams on projects in over 90 countries across every continent. He has managed teams in Europe, USA, Middle East, Africa, and in Asia/Pacific. After living and working in the USA, Spain, the UK, Hong Kong, and in Dubai, U.A.E., Henry has returned to his native Denmark.

Henry holds a Master's degree in International Human Resource Management and Business Administration from Copenhagen Business School, Denmark; Cranfield School of Business, UK; EM Lyon, France; ESADE, Spain; and University of Wisconsin, USA.