

JOHN CRAWLEY – FCCA SIRM FIB MIFT

Financial Advisor - Dublin Docklands Development Authority
Consultant Project Director - Irish Aviation Authority

John Crawley is a Risk Management Consultant and a qualified master-trainer, delivering executive Risk Management Training to ISO Standard internationally.

John also designs and delivers public and private sector training programmes on a variety of subjects including:

- Corporate Governance
- Finance for Non-Finance Executives
- Key Performance / Risk / Control Indicators

John is currently the Financial Advisor to the Dublin Docklands Development Authority and a Consultant Project Director with the Irish Aviation Authority. An Accountant by profession, John has spent the last 12 years running and advising businesses in both the private and public sector. Prior to that John spent 23 years, in various Executive positions, with the RBS Group.

John has undertaken risk assignments in the following industries and locations:

Industries:

- Local & municipal authorities
- Financial services
- Real Estate
- Oil, Gas, Wind & Power
- Government
- Agriculture
- Waste & Recycling
- Aviation
- Hospitality
- FMCG

Locations:

- Europe (UK, Ireland, Romania, Russia)
- Middle East (Oman, Dubai, Saudi Arabia)
- Africa (Mauritius)
- Americas (Bermuda)