

KHALID GAROUSHA

Partner - Allen & Overy

Khalid Garousha is a Partner in the Abu Dhabi office of Allen & Overy LLP. He is an English qualified solicitor and has been practicing law in the Middle East since 2000

Khalid specializes in corporate and corporate finance work and has significant expertise in international and regional transactions in the Middle East, including advising international and regional investment banks, multi-national companies, regional trading houses, international and regional public companies and private equity houses on

- Regional and cross-border mergers, acquisitions and disposals
- Joint venture and partnership arrangements
- IPOs, rights issues, private placements and other equity fund-raising transactions
- The establishment of internal corporate governance processes and procedures in line with international best practice

Prior to moving out to the Middle East, Khalid practiced law in London for five years