

ZEYAD KHOSHAIM

Managing Partner, Khoshaim & Associates
Partner, Allen & Overy

- Zeyad is a leading lawyer practicing in Saudi Arabia and is the managing partner of Khoshaim & Associates.
- Zeyad is a global partner in Allen & Overy and has been practicing law in Saudi Arabia for over 13 years.
- Zeyad is qualified in Saudi Arabia, New York, California, and Washington DC.
- Zeyad specialises in advising corporate multinationals in structuring and financing major projects, joint ventures, mergers, and acquisitions in the Saudi Arabia.
- Zeyad's work also covers both international and domestic arbitration, sitting as an arbitrator, and local business-critical litigation before a wide variety of courts and judicial committees.
- Zeyad routinely advises on matters of capital markets, IPOs, rights issuances, and matters of corporate governance.
- He is a board member of the Saudi Arabian Commercial Arbitration Centre and is helping to shape the landscape of arbitration in Saudi Arabia.
- Zeyad holds a Doctorate in Jurisprudence from Vanderbilt University Law School, and a Bachelor's of Engineering from Vanderbilt University.
- Zeyad also completed the Management of Law Firms Executive Program at Harvard University Law School.
- He has been ranked as a Tier 1 and Band 1 lawyer according to Chambers Global, Legal 500, and the IFRL. Clients describe him as "an innovative thinker who adds a lot of value and has been tremendously helpful." (Chambers Global, 2011- Saudi Arabia)